

Steven Poletsky
Torrington
Telephone interview

[Steven Poletsky is the brother of Mark Poletsky, whose life was saved by Dr. Walker (now lives in Florida), but who declined to be interviewed about it.]

[My brother Mark] was in a bad accident when a tractor tipped over as he was driving. They took him to the hospital and Walker stayed with him the whole time for a couple of days until he was out of danger. Our family was ever so grateful. Tractors are very dangerous machines.
