

1/23/11

Dear Cornwall Historical -

You have created a wonderful exhibition that not only tells a memorable story of Doc Walker, it suggests how differently medicine can be practiced in a small town setting. I love your well-chosen artifacts and the imaginative ways you have used them. Thanks for helping me identify the lovely authentic virus is Katie & Walker's hooked rug. Surely one of the least sentimental motifs in feminine crafts I've seen recently - Kathleen Hulser